

Presents:

The River Conservation Society Inc. Of York

The Life of Georgiana Molloy

‘The Mind That Shines’

Author, Bernice Barry, will enlighten us on this inspirational early settler and botanical collector from the Southwest of WA.

Introduced by: Dr Neville Marchant, a botanical history enthusiast and renowned botanist of over 50 years with the WA Herbarium.

GEORGIANA MOLLOY
the mind that shines

A biography of one of Australia's first female botanical collectors

BERNICE BARRY

Being held on:

Sat. 26th May 2018

At: Avon Tce. York

The Church of Christ Hall

Begins with:

Registration and Morning Tea at 9.30

Lunch Provided

Cost: $10.00

This event is supported by Volunteering WA

& LotteryWest

To thank the many volunteers who donate their time
in caring for the environment.

Register – by text to 0418 378446 or email

morrellii@bigpond.com

